DIABETES TECHNOLOGY NETWORK UK OPENSAPS SURVEY

The number of adults, parents and children opting to build their own artificial pancreas system is increasing. Diabetes Technology Network UK are keen to develop an understanding of clinical approaches to this issue and have put together a survey on healthcare professionals attitudes towards DIY artificial pancreas systems. A survey was recently launched at Diabetes UK Professional Conference 2019. If you have not done so already, please complete the survey at: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DIYAPS_Attitudes
