CONGRATULATIONS TO PROFESSOR MAY NG AND DR FIONA CAMPBELL ON THE 2022 QUEEN'S HONOURS OBE AWARD

ACDC would like to congratulate our ACDC Chair Professor May Ng on being awarded the Queen's birthday honour of an OBE for Services to People with Diabetes and Services to People with Autism and Disabilities. Prof May Ng states "I was so surprised and deeply humbled to be honoured by this award. I wish to express my immense gratitude for the support from my family, colleagues, the children and families whom I work with. This award reflects the dedication of so many people, and my greatest hope is that the recognition afforded by the OBE focuses attention on the continued efforts to improve diabetes care and raise autism awareness globally." Dr Fiona Campbell who is CYP Diabetes Network lead since 2009 was awarded for Services to Young People with Diabetes and tweeted "Thank you everyone who supported my nomination for The OBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List. I have received so many kind messages and am very grateful for everyone's support over the years."
